

Appendix A

Additional Applicant Information

Applications from individuals residing outside Northern Ireland are welcome. The role provides flexibility for remote working, and routine duties may be undertaken from any agreed location. However, candidates should be aware that attendance in Northern Ireland will be required on certain occasions throughout the year for key events, meetings, and training. These requirements will be scheduled in accordance with the organisation's annual performance calendar.

Prospective applicants who wish to request a confidential discussion regarding the role may do so by contacting the Chief Executive via email.